BILL SIGNED

The President announced the signing of the following enrolled bill in the presence of the Senate after the caption had been read:

S.B. 278 (Signed subject to Art. III, Sec. 49a of the Constitution)

SENATE RESOLUTION 376

Senator Brown offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas joins with the residents of Fort Bend County in declaring Wednesday, March 10, 1993, as Fort Bend County Day; and

WHEREAS, A county of rural charm and natural beauty, Fort Bend County is a popular area for fishing, hunting, and vacationing; yet it has recently been named the number two location in the United States for manufacturing by the National Association of Corporate Real Estate Executives; and

WHEREAS, The flavor of history in the Fort Bend County lands is inspiring; old live oaks and river land and lakes have for years been left undisturbed in spite of the county's proximity to Houston; and

WHEREAS, The county was a major settlement site for Stephen F. Austin's first colony of settlers, the Old Three Hundred, who farmed land and established homes along the Brazos River and the Oyster Creek area; and

WHEREAS, New development and population growth in the county have been managed with care in order to preserve natural habitats and the historical and pastoral ambience of the land and its famous agricultural fields; and

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County is currently gaining national recognition for its amazing growth, economic vibrance, and the quality of its human resources; and

WHEREAS, The United States Census showed that Fort Bend County outgrew the state, the nation, and the region with a whopping 72 percent growth from 1980 through 1990 and has a crime rate which is 30 percent below the national average in crimes per 100,000 population; and

WHEREAS, The county is leading the state in job creation at three times the state average for new manufacturing jobs and placed third in the nation in master-planned community home sales in the first half of 1992; and

WHEREAS, The county's ethnic diversity and excellent location as part of the Houston metropolitan area have strengthened its attractiveness statistically and factually, and it now has the human resource base to compete on national and international levels; and

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County residents have an award-winning school system and a strong economy and provide much of the state's rice, corn, and nursery crops; and

WHEREAS, Through hard work and clear-sighted goals, the citizens of Fort Bend County have contributed significantly to the State of Texas and deserve to be proud of their efforts; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 73rd Legislature, hereby express appreciation to the people of Fort Bend County and extend best wishes to them for a celebratory Fort Bend County Day; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the residents of Fort Bend County as an expression of high regard from the Texas Senate.

BROWN
ARMBRISTER
ELLIS

The resolution was read and was adopted by a viva voce vote.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Brown was recognized and introduced to the Senate Judge Roy Cordes, Tony Nelson, Orin Cobell, Robert Navarro, and Carolyn Reed here in honor of Fort Bend County Day.

The Senate welcomed these guests.

SENATE BILL 25 WITH HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Senator Moncrief called S.B. 25 from the President's table for consideration of the House amendments to the bill.

The President laid the bill and the House amendments before the Senate.

Amendment No. 1

Amend S.B. 25 on page 1, line 16 by deleting the word "serious" before the words "bodily injury".

Amend S.B. 25 on page 6 between lines 12 and 13 by inserting the following:

"Subsection (c) the institutional division shall give the notice to require by Subsection (a) of this article:

(1) not later than the 30th day before the person completes the sentence and is released; or

(2) immediately if the person escapes from the facility operated by the institutional division.

Amendment No. 2

Amend S.B. 25, in Section 1 of the bill, in Section 42.07(a), Penal Code, in Subdivision (7), as follows:

(1) Between "(7)" and "on", insert "(A)".

(2) Between the last word in the subdivision and the period insert the following:

“; and

(B) the person against whom the conduct is specifically directed toward on at least one occasion before the last occasion reports the occurrence of the conduct to a law enforcement agency”.

Amendment No. 3

Amend S.B. 25, in Section 1 of the bill, in Section 42.07, Penal Code, by adding a new Subsection (e) to read as follows:

(e) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution under Subsection (a)(7) of this Section that the actor was engaged in conduct that consisted of constitutionally or statutorily protected rights.

Amendment No. 4

Amend S.B. 25 on page 3, on line 1, delete “; or” and substitute a period after the word section, and delete lines 2-5.

Amendment No. 1 on Third Reading

Amend S.B. 25 on third reading, in Section 1 of the bill, in Section 42.07, Penal Code, as follows:

(1) Strike Subdivision (7) of Section 42.07 (a), as amended by the De La Garza amendment on second reading, and substitute a new Subdivision (7) to read as follows:

(7) (A) on more than one occasion engages in conduct directed specifically toward the other person, including following that person, that is reasonably likely to harass, annoy, alarm, abuse, torment, or embarrass that person;

(B) on at least one of those occasions by acts or words threatens to inflict bodily injury on that person or to commit an offense against that person, a member of that person's family, or that person's property; and

(C) on at least one of those occasions engages in the conduct after the person toward whom the conduct is specifically directed has reported to a law enforcement agency the conduct described by this subdivision.

(2) In Subsection (e), as added by the Thompson amendment on second reading, between “of” and “constitutionality”, insert “activity in support of”.

Amendment No. 2 on Third Reading

Amend S.B. 25 on third reading by striking Sections 8 and 9 of the bill and substituting a new Section 8 of the bill to read as follows:

SECTION 8. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendments were read.
